Dear Sir-

Your favor of January 28th containing certified copy of Howard survey, also translated copy of deed to Ann Wheelock Leager received, for which accept my thanks. I herewith hand you Post Office order for $1⁰⁰ amount balance due you as per statement in your letter.

The 21 acres surveyed for Sanger Bros. on Rocky Creek and aback which you have written P. M. Greenwood is within the embrace of P. M. Greenwood and is a part of land in his possession. He claims the land as a part of the Ann Wheelock Leager, and protests against it being declared vacant or that a patent be issued on it, but in the event it is declared to be vacant land he wants to avail himself of his preference under the Statute, and as soon as he has got a copy of the first notice for our Secretary, who is now away I will prepare for him the necessary affidavit.
Yours truly
