Dear Sir:

I have examined the field notes made for you covering survey 28, containing 41 acres in Bosque Co. and find same correct. You are advised however, that said survey gives Milam ~~pre-~~ <sup>covers</sup> ~~emption~~ No. 4255 in the name of J. M. Biffle and he or his assignee has a right to perfect his purchase and have the land patented to him unless it can be shown that neither J. M. Biffle nor any one holding ~~as~~ under him complied with the law in regard to occupancy of said land. Biffle's affidavit and designation was filed in this office Dec. 29, 1883. No proof of occupancy has been made, and if you can show by the affidavits of two or more witnesses who know the facts, that he did not occupy the land, the file will be further considered.

Yours truly,
